
KCL-UCL 5th Environmental Law Symposium

21st February 2020

Jessica Miranda, Research Associate, Leiden University International Environmental Law: A TWAIL Perspective Matthias Petel, PhD Candidate, Université Catholique de Louvain Ideologies of Environmental Law	before the US, the Canadian and the Swiss courts Gayathri Naik, PhD Candidate, SOAS Role of Courts in evolution, implementation and compliance of Environmental Law: A South Asian Perspective
13:15 - 14:00 Lunch
14:00 - 15:30
Economic and Private Approaches to Environmental Law Chair: Priscila Carvalho, UCL Energy Institute Gregoire Lunven de Chanrond, PhD Candidate, Chinese University of Hong Kong Multilateral Environmental Agreements in Green Bonds' Taxonomies	Environmental Law, Human Rights and Gender Chair: Dr Yoriko Otomo, SOAS

- † h) # M #

The Role of Civil Associations in Monitoring and Verification of Compliance Information under MEAs	Utilisation of marine genetic resources - navigating through the sea of uncertainties
---	--

16:45 - 17:15: Professor Stuart Bell, Closing remarks

17:15: Close and Drinks

This event is generously supported by the UCL Centre for Law and the Environment, UCL Faculty of