

UCL is the recipient of a Wellcome Institutional Strategic Support Fund (ISSF) award that enables us to invest in our excellent research capabilities in the life and biomedical sciences in strategically important research activities that are within the Wellcome remit.

In partnership with the three UCLPartners NIHR Biomedical Research Centres (BRCs), ISSF funding is now being deployed for a new call in [\[link\]](#) with the aim of pump-priming collaborative projects. We invite UCL researchers and clinicians affiliated with the GOSH, Moorfields or UCLH¹
